

MILLER TRIALS HELD UP TILL FALL

Continued Until Fall Term When Special Judge Takes Motion to Quash Under Advisement

ADJOURNED SESSION JULY 23

Unfinished Business Will be Taken Care of Then—Many Grand Jury Indictments Served

Saturday proved to be a busy day in the circuit court, which ended the May term, and many grand jury indictments were served during the closing hours. The case set for today of the state against Capp Miller, charged with unlawful possession of a still, was continued until the fall term.

Judge Sparks will hold an adjourned session on Monday, July 23, when some of the unfinished business or motions may be taken care of.

In the Miller case, which was to be heard by a special judge, John Craig of Greensburg, the defendant filed a motion to quash and the matter was taken under advisement, and this caused a delay in the case set for today.

In the case of the Commercial Investment Company against Carl O'Neal, a suit on a trade acceptance, and on which the plaintiff was recently awarded judgment, the defendant was refused a motion for a new trial, and an appeal to the appellate court was taken and bond furnished.

In the list of criminal business, growing out of grand jury indictments, appeared the following defendants.

Rose C. Small of Carthage, charged with unlawful possession and transporting liquor, gave $1,000 bond, and an affidavit of a similar nature was dismissed.

Frank Wallace, Rushville photographer, was arraigned on two charges, one for perjury and the other for the unlawful possession of liquor. Bond on the first case was $2,000 and on the latter case $1,000. The perjury case alleges that he made a false statement on the witness stand at his former liquor trial, in asserting that the bottom contained some other substance, other than "white mule".

Jack Smith was arraigned on two charges of assault and battery. The prosecuting witness was James Root. In one case he pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $1 and costs, and the other case was dismissed.

James Palmer was arraigned on two charges, one for burglary and the other for grand larceny, with bond in each case being given for $500. The specific charge is that he entered and robbed the Big Four railroad.

GENERAL EXODUS FROM CITY ON THE FOURTH

Business Will Be Suspended And Rushville People Will Spend The Day Elsewhere

MANY ARE GOING TO KOKOMO

A general exodus from Rushville is probable on the Fourth of July as business will be suspended and there will be no attraction here to keep Rushville people home. Rush county farmers will have plenty to occupy them in the wheat fields.

The postoffice will be closed all day and no city or rural deliveries will be made, with the exception of special delivery parcels and packages containing perishable matter.

Banks, barber shops, practically all retail establishments and all other places of business will be closed all day.

A number of Rush county men and women will go to Kokomo to attend the state meeting of the Ku Klux Klan. The Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company will run two special cars from Rushville and two each from Connersville, Greensburg and Shelbyville for the meeting. The cars will be run straight through to Kokomo. The I. & C. will maintain its regular service on the holiday.

BIDS ARE OPENED

Commissioners Have Business Session At Regular Monthly Meeting

The county board of commissioners allowed the usual monthly claims at the July meeting this morning, and went to Noble township before noon to view the W. A. Norris gravel road which has lately been completed. The road will be open for travel in a short time.

The commissioners were due for a busy session this afternoon, beginning at two o'clock. They expected to open bids on the Lavern Dunn macadam road in Richland township, for coal at the court house and county jail and for supplies at the county poor infirmary.

KRUPP WORKS IN HANDS OF FRENCH

Invading Troops Advance In The Ruhr As Reprisals For Bomb Outrage At Hochfeld Bridge

OCCUPIED AREAS CUT OFF

Germans Aboard Trains Are Forced To March Over Every Bridge Ahead Of The Trains

(By United Press)

Berlin, July 2—Advance of French troops in the Ruhr and Rhineland began at dawn. The move is believed here to be in reprisal for the bomb outrage at Hochfeld bridge Saturday in which many Belgian soldiers lost their lives.

Westhofen was occupied by the French at 4 a. m. Reports from Schwerte were that a detachment of sixty French cyclists was on its way to that city, while cavalry and infantry advanced in the direction of Hagen.

It is reported that the entire Krupp works in the Ruhr have been seized and all work stopped.

The occupied areas have been cut off from the rest of Germany as a result of sanctions following the Hochfeld outrage. No traffic, save in foodstuffs is allowed the Germans.

A typical example of the form reprisals are taken is to be found in the situation at Duisberg. Twenty citizens were arrested and held as hostages; coffee houses and theatres were closed; vehicular traffic is prohibited; pedestrians must keep off the streets from 10 p. m. until 5 a. m.

Every time a train passing through the occupied area comes to a bridge ahead the German passengers are forced to alight. Then, with their hands held over their heads, they are driven on foot over the bridge ahead of the train and taken aboard on the other side.

The border control has been tightened. Orders have gone out from the forces of occupation that pedestrians attempting to cross the borders by country roads will be shot unceremoniously.

The French occupied several important positions of the Krupp works at Essen, including smelters and boilers. They seized electric locomotives also.

It is not known whether they desire to confiscate locomotive, etc., or intend to occupy the works permanently.

TWENTY-SIX PERSONS HURT

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., July 2—Auto accidents took a toll of four dead and twenty-six injured in Indiana over the week-end.

Two Chicago business men were killed at Hammond when their car skidded into a ditch and pinned them under two feet of water. They drowned before rescuers arrived to lift the car.

Thomas F. Darmondy, prominent Indianapolis candy manufacturer, was killed and his wife seriously injured when he backed his auto onto the track in front of a speeding interurban near Cumberland.

One girl was killed and three others were hurt in a collision of two autos near Anderson.

Seven persons were injured when their auto was hit by a Big Four train at Warsaw.

Eleven persons were injured in Indianapolis. Four persons were placed under arrest charged with reckless driving or driving while under the influence of liquor as the result of the series of accidents.

TO DISPROVE STATE CLAIM

CHRISTIANITY HOPE OF WORLD

Bishop William F. Anderson Addresses Opening Session Of World Citizenship Conference

BEING HELD AT WINONA LAKE

Representatives From Nearly Forty Nations Present—Harding And Hughes Send Messages

Winona Lake, Ind., July 2—Christianity is today the only hope of saving the world from chaos, Bishop William F. Anderson, of the Methodist Episcopal church, declared in the opening address of the conference on world citizenship which is being held here with representatives from nearly 40 nations present.

"Europe is engaged in the impossible task of trying to build the life of the continent upon hate," he said. "Europe is seething in hate and bitterness. Europe may go the way of Babylon or an Assyria."

"The world's greatest task is to rationalize and Christianize its activities and institutions. Unless international relationships are put on a basis of Christianity, the world will sink into chaos."

The Rev. Jesse H. Martin, general superintendent of the national reform association, declared that the world had tried everything but Christianity as a cure for its ills, and that it was now time to give the Christian religion a fair trial.

Dr. Henry Chung, Korean commissioner to the United States, said that continued world peace is impossible without recognizing the nationality of all peoples on a basis of Christian fellowship.

Boy Hit by Auto Unhurt But Eggs are "Total Loss"

John Woods, ten-year-old son of Mrs. Emma Woods, was struck by an automobile Saturday evening near the Windsor hotel, and escaped with only bruises. The machine was said to have been driven by Thomas Kemp of this city. The boy, in attempting to cross the street, became confused between several machines. A dozen eggs that he was carrying, was a total loss. The boy was carrying the eggs in his blouse.

Many of the students gave Bible readings that had been committed to memory and other numbers were songs and recitation by the various classes. On account of the program being rendered, there was no sermon.

GINGS FARMER GIVES $2,000 BOND TODAY

Edward Herbert, On Whose Farm Corn Whiskey Was Found, Will Be Tried In September

NEPHEW MAKES CONFESSION

Edward Herbert former of Gings, upon whose place a barrel of alleged corn whiskey mash was found Friday morning, appeared this morning in the circuit court and gave bond for $2,000, and his case will be set for trial in the September term of court.

It will be recalled that the search was made following the confession of Raiford Garris, a 15-year-old boy, who was intoxicated Thursday night in Connersville and arrested. Frank Perkins of Connersville also was arrested and will be tried Thursday in that court.

The lad, who is a nephew of the defendant, is said to have made a complete confession. Sheriff Hunt who was among those who made the raid on the farm, stated that the barrel of whiskey was found in the middle of a wheat field, and was in the fermenting stage. Large green flies were busily swarming over the top of the foam, he said. The lad stated that the water was dipped from the river, usually in the nighttime, and that "everything in the water" went into the barrel.

The sheriff stated that the heavy drinkers of "moonshine" would no doubt be cured if they could see the places where the "stuff" is manufactured.

The funeral arrangements were indefinite today. The body will arrive here this evening, and will be taken to the late residence.

MELTING POT LID IS THROWN OPEN

Greatest Rush Of Immigration Since New Restrictions Went Into Effect Two Years Ago

2,074 ARE ADMITTED SUNDAY

Influx Of Foreigners Expected To Close By Tuesday Noon—Lured By High Wages Here

Ellis Island, N. Y. July 2—The lid of the melting pot was opened today to the greatest rush of immigration since the new restrictions went into effect two years ago.

Dawn found a staff of officials which had labored throughout Sunday once more at work, passing the first of the 2,500 immigrants who are expected to gain admission to the United States today. Two thousand and seventy-four, first of the human cargoes dumped here by a dozen trans-Atlantic liners the moment the new immigration year began, were admitted Sunday.

The rush of foreigners seeking homes here lured for the most part, according to their stories, by high wages—such as the $12 a day paid to bricklayers—is expected to be over by Tuesday afternoon when the largest number of immigrants that ever has sought admission at one time, will have been passed.

Commissioner of Immigration Henry H. Curran said that in his opinion the present rush of immigrants was of an unusually good class and that at least eighty percent would be admitted.

In spite of the record number to be handled, Curran said there was no serious congestion as the newcomers were swept through the necessary channels of inspection and examination.

Boyed up by the recent excitement of the liner's race to port, the new arrivals seemed happy. Many of them possessed musical instruments and crowded groups of immigrants pressing forward to inspection enlivened the waiting with old world songs.

Cesare Litti, 18-year old Italian boy, first of the July quota to be admitted, said he had been attracted to the United States because his brother, now living here was making $12 a day as a bricklayer.

One Italian, accompanied by his family, famed at the Ellis Island routine because he said he had already purchased pallman reservations for Chicago and the delay was causing him to miss the train.

Some of the smaller countries exhausted their quota almost immediately. The division known as "other Asia" comprising Turkey in Asia and Persia, last night exceeded its quota of 15 by two.

500 Come Through Detroit

Detroit, Mich., July 2—Five hundred foreigners stormed the immigration office here yesterday and were admitted to the United States under quotas allowed for the fiscal year.

As many more would-be immigrants were expected to apply today and on the rest of the days of the week, according to Dr. P. L. Prentiss, director of immigration here.

Several thousand applications are expected to be received during the week, Dr. Prentiss said as thousands of foreigners were reported to have been waiting on the Canadian side.

CAN PLACE MEN FOR THE HARVEST

County Agent Says Employment Can be Found For Those Seeking Work on Rush County Farms

SHORTAGE NOT SERIOUS HERE

J. H. Starkey, R. R. 7, First Farmer in Rush County to Finish Wheat Cutting—Begins in Earnest

The county agent can place a number of men on farms for harvest work if those wanting such employment will get in touch with the office at once. The county agent will not only arrange employment but will see that the men are transported to the farms.

A story appearing in the Republican last week no doubt gave a wrong impression regarding the harvest labor situation in this county by intimating that there was no additional help needed. While the situation the county over is not as serious as in other counties in the state there are individual farms where help is needed.

In some counties the situation is so serious and labor is so scarce that laborers are taking advantage of the situation by charging exorbitant prices for their services. Such a condition is not looked for in this county, for most farmers by exchange of help between themselves will be able to cope with the situation.

At the present price of wheat and the financial disadvantage of agriculture at the present time, Rush county farmers can not afford and will not pay unreasonable prices for labor. It is pointed out by some that the farmer can better afford to turn his hogs into his wheat and "hog it down" rather than pay the unreasonable prices asked in some sections of the country. This does not mean, however, that the farmer is expecting to get his labor for nothing, but will pay the real value of the service as reflected by the market price of his product, it is stated.

J. H. Starkey, Rural Route No. 7, Rushville is believed to be the first farmer in Rush county to finish wheat cutting. He finished his crop of twenty-eight acres Saturday. His wheat is the Dunlap variety and was sowed September 26 last year.

Wheat cutting was on in full blast today. There was believed to be very few fields in the county that had not been invaded by the binder. Some of the wheat was very ripe before cutting began. Several farmers started Saturday afternoon, cutting around the field a few times, and were prepared to go to the annual task in

HARDING TO DISCUSS PROBLEMS OF THE WEST

Irrigation and Highway Transportation to Engage President's Attention in Spokane Speech

THREE CARDINAL POINTS

By LAWRENCE MARTIN (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Aboard President Harding's Special train, enroute to Spokane, Washington, July 2—Problems of developing western irrigation and highway transportation will engage President Harding's attention in an address to be delivered in Spokane tonight.

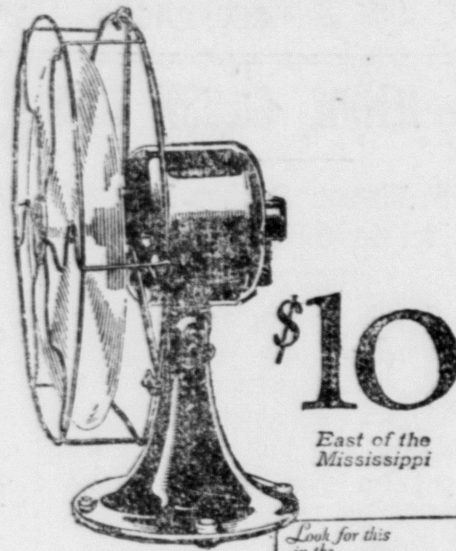

Mr. Harding has strongly defined convictions concerning Western development as a national problem which he intends to express. He has in mind three cardinal points around which his entire western policy will revolve:

1—The West must be given the fullest opportunity for development but it should be self-developed as largely as possible and not developed through paternalism.

2—Development must never be at the expense of the great natural wonders of the country such as the Yellowstone National Park.

3—Irrigation must be "followed through" by the government so that the individuals involved will have one hundred percent chance to make good on the reclaimed land.

road station in this city a few weeks ago.

Morton Barber of Carthage was arraigned on a charge of malicious trespass, and gave bond in the sum of $500.

Carl Murphy, living near the Decatur county line, was arraigned on a charge of cruelty to animals, and entered a plea of guilty, and his fine of $5 and costs was stayed. He was charged with striking a horse over the leg with a hammer, and the blow caused the horse's leg to be broken.

Two divorce suits also have been dismissed, with the cases of William Shane against Bertha Shane and James W. Jones against Dorothy Jones, being stricken from the docket.

In the case of Elsie Lewis against Horace Lewis, which was heard in court last week, the court granted the plaintiff a divorce, and ordered the defendant to pay her $25 for attorney fees and $5 a week support for their two children.

AMUSEMENTS

Two Days At The Mystic

Charles Algon Ewinburne's immortal poem, "Faustine," which has never failed to fascinate and hold enthralled the readers of each new coming generation, forms the basis on one of the most lavish photo-plays presented in many seasons, "The Black Panther's Cub," produced by W. K. Ziegfeld and starring Florence Reed, which is shown at the Mystic today and Tuesday.

As "The Black Panther's Cub," or the daughter of "Faustine," Miss Reed returns to the screen, after a prolonged absence, in one of the most entertaining and spectacular roles she has ever essayed.

Scarcely less important is the supporting cast with which Mr. Ziegfeld has surrounded the leading figure in the play. Such as Norman Trevor, Earl Foxe, Tyrone Power and Henry Stephenson are sufficiently important in the amusement world to individually insure the success of any production, whether on the stage or screen, and yet this array of theatrical talent has been combined by the producer in this one production.

Are Girls Too Swift

Is the modern, up-to-the minute, emancipated, unfettered and untrammelled girl overdoing it Can she carry her own latehkey, smoke cigarette, keep late hours, ignore the conventions, smash the old ideals without at the same time smashing herself?

Or, in another way of putting it: Is the so-called "bold girl" necessarily a "bad girl?"

A great many women leaders are beginning to suffer uneasy qualms and ask themselves this question. What is the answer?

In "Prologal Daughters," a Sam Wood Paramount production with Gloria Swanson as the star, which comes to the Princess theatre Wednesday and Thursday, the answer is a smashing surprise that will make the audience gasp.

A frenzy of extravagance in which the thoroughly liberated woman of today is shown plunging full tilt into the maelstrom of reckless behavior, is followed by a climax that is unique in motion picture production.

COMPANY C DRILL

All members of Company C, Rushville's National guard unit, are urged to attend the weekly drill Tuesday night, as time is getting short for drills before they leave for the summer camp. The local company will entrain here Sunday, July 15 for Camp Knox where they will take two weeks training. Last Tuesday the local company was inspected by a state officer, and the next two drill nights will be important ones for the soldiers.

THE BEAUTY OF HOLINESS:—Give unto the Lord, the glory due unto His name; bring an offering, and come before Him; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.—1 Chronicles 16: 29.

A Double Benefit

The close of the government fiscal year at Washington, with a surplus of $200,000,000, notwithstanding the fact that we entered the year July 1, 1922, with a deficit of over $800,- 000,000 staring us in the face, has demonstrated the value of a tariff law that taxes imports and that also revives business by inspiring confidence.

For one thing, the tax upon imports of foreign products has contributed to the revenues more than $100,000,000 in excess of what was estimated in July of last year as coming from that source. But that is not its major achievement. Business men knew when the present administration took control of national policies that they would look forward to prosperous times—that American industry and agriculture would be protected from too severe foreign competition. Hence, business began to revive late in 1921 and was going at a pretty good tilt in 1922, confident that by the time it had struck running heat protection would again be a fact.

Capacity production became the rule within three months after the passage of the Fordney-McCumber law. You can't squeeze blood from a turnip, and you can't secure taxes in satisfactory amount from business when it has lain prostrate for a year. But the state of business for 1922 resulted in a good tax yield in the early months of 1923. Because of improved business conditions, the current year will be a bumper federal income year, so satisfactory that it may be found advisable and practicable to clip the rates a bit in the assessments on 1924 operations. And here again the benefits of the tariff will be in evidence.

Baiting The Supreme Court

There is much being said these days in criticism of the power exercised by the United States Supreme court.

Here is what Chief Justice Marshall gave as his view of it, and it is the commonly accredited view:

"It is a proposition too plain to be contested that the Constitution controls any legislative act repugnant to it; or that the legislature may alter the Constitution by an ordinary act. Between these alternatives there is no middle ground. The Constitution is either a superior, paramount law, unchangeable by ordinary means, or it is on a level with ordinary legislative acts, and, like other acts, is alterable when the legislature shall please to alter it. If the former part of the alternative be true, then a legislative act contrary to the Constitution is not law; if the latter part be true, then written constitutions are absurd attempts, on the part of the people, to limit a power in its own nature illimitable."

This doubtless will be the American constitutional view, in contrast with the British supreme parliamentary idea, so long as the governmental system left us by the builders of the republic is able to withstand the attacks of those who would have the political wisdom and intelligence of the average man reflected in our organic law rather than to set up a standard of wisdom and intelligence to operate as a check on popular clamor.

Help Came When Dubie Thought End Was Near

"My troubles had me thinking my days were just about over, but now I'm a well man, and it's all due to Tanlac," recently declared Stephen Dubie, stationary fireman, 526 S. 12th St., Terre Haute, Ind.

"For four years I suffered so from stomach trouble that I couldn't eat even the lightest foods without being miserable for hours afterwards with headaches, gas, awful cramps, and a burning sensation like fire in the pit of my stomach. For days at a time I couldn't eat a mouthful of anything and lost weight until I was only a shadow of my former self. Besides all this, I couldn't half sleep at night. Finally I got so weak

I could hardly drag myself around and was losing lots of time from work.

"The Tanlac treatment straightened me right out and now I eat hearty without a trace of indigestion, never have headaches, sleep fine, have gained weight and am on the job every day feeling fine. I'll always praise Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.

JEHNKE GIVEN POOR SUPPORT

Rushville Pitcher Pounded For Nine Hits But Greensburg Earns Only One Run

The Greensburg Eagles again showed their hand with the Rushville baseball club, when they blanked the locals here Sunday afternoon, 5 to 0, with the pitching of Hall the outstanding feature, who allowed only one hit, and fanned out 13 batters.

Behnke for the locals was given poor support in tight places, although pounded for nine singles, but the visiting team earned only one run. The local team played poor ball in spots, but their inability to hit the ball proved to be the stumbling block.

The game with the Greensburg club for Wednesday was cancelled yesterday, and the locals will not play on the holiday.

The game by play yesterday was as follows:

First Inning

Greensburg: Pursnell grounded to Cookman at short for an error; Fritz sacrificed, W. Behnke to Schott; Van Metre singled to right, scoring Pursnell, and the runner reached second on the throw-in. Lambert singled to right on slow fly, scoring Van Metre. Johnson flied to Pearsey in deep center. Gunter singled through short. Wagner singled to right, but Lambert was caught at the plate, Sharp to Byrne. Two runs, four hits, one error.

Rushville: Conway fanned. R Behnke also fanned swinging. Schott out, third to first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning

Greensburg: Thompson out, second to first; Hall and Pursnell fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Rushville: Byrne out, pitcher to first; Tettters and Pearsey fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning

Greensburg: Fritz beat out an infield bunt. VanMetre sacrificed, pitcher to first. Lambert out second to first. Johnson up, Fritz scored on passed ball, and batter was out. Cookman to first. One run, one hit, one error.

Rushville: Cookman and Sharp fanned. W. Behnke safe when short stop fumbled his grounder. Conway fanned. No runs, no hits, one error.

Fourth Inning

Greensburg: Gunter singled over short. Wagner forced Gunter at second. W. Behnke to Conway. Thompson up. Wagner stole second, batter out, short to first. Hall fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Rushville: R. Behnke singled back of third for the only bingle that Rushville got. Schott flied to second. Byrne out, third to first. Tettters out, short to first. No runs, one hit no errors.

Fifth Inning

Greensburg: Pursnell singled to left. Fritz flied, but Pursnell took second on throw-in. Van Metre out, third to first. Lambert out, Conway to first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

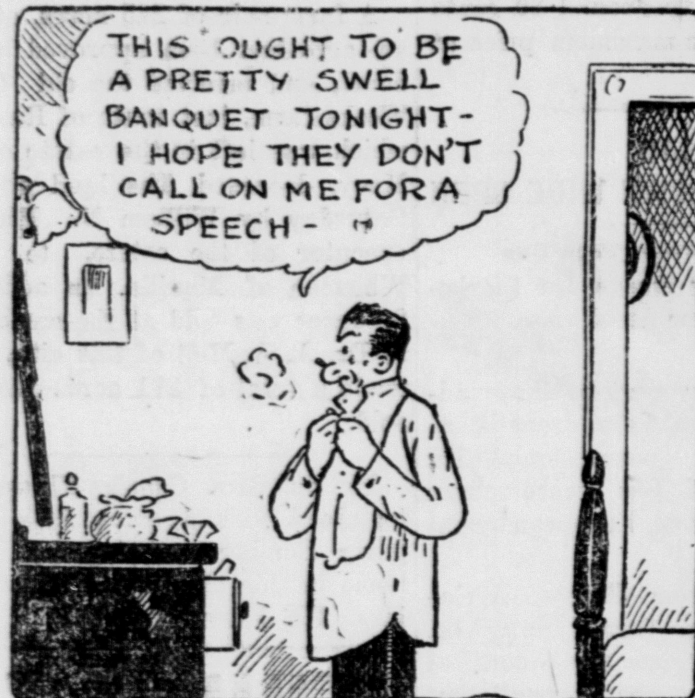

Rushville: Pearsey out, short to first. Cookman fanned. Sharp out on a bunt, catcher to first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning

Greensburg: Johnson and Gunter flied to Pearsey. Wagner lined through Conway for an error. Thompson out, third to first. No runs, no hits, one error.

Rushville: W. Behnke fanned. Conway, out second to first. R. Behnke fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

DEATH WATCH ON THE FIGHT BEGINS

Newspaper Men And Others Gather Outside Bank That Is To Cough Up Last $100,000

PEOPLE THINK IT'S A GO

By HENRY L. FARRELL (U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Great Falls, Mont., July 2.—Before the grey stone building which houses the Stanton Savings and Trust bank, the death watch on the Dempsey-Gibbons fight started early this morning.

Some time before midnight the vault of the bank is expected to cough up the $100,000 final payment of the Dempsey $300,000 purse and assure the heavyweight championship battle for Wednesday in Shelby.

Outside the two door of the bank were gathered newspapermen, coppers, a crowd of Elks, and little groups of Elks, attending their state convention here.

Jack Kearns, manager of the champion, appeared and talked with the scribes. He said he hadn't been told when or where the money was to be paid. The contract requires only that it be handed over before midnight.

"I have said many times already that if the money is not turned over Dempsey will not fight," Kearns said. "I will not be bluffed by any kind of threats."

George Stanton, president of the bank, who has been in charge of the latest financial tussle, said the money would be paid but would say no more.

So far as public opinion is concerned the money is as good as paid. The townspeople are talking about the best way to get to Shelby on the Fourth. There seems little doubt that the battle will be staged despite the failure of the promoters to live up to their promises on the previous installment.

Dempsey finished his training Sunday. It was one of his best workouts. He didn't do much but the form he showed and the ease with which he went through his stunts with two sparring partners was enough to convince the critics that he is in shape.

Crowds Begin to Arrive

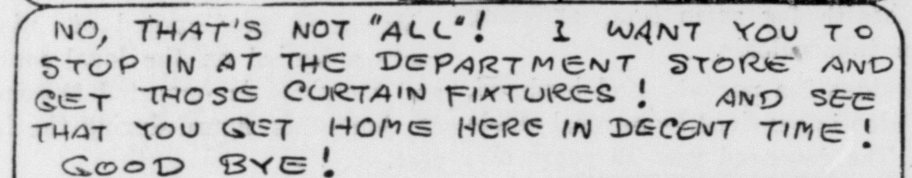

Shelby, Mont., July 2.—The population and nervousness increased in Shelby simultaneously today.

As daylight and a newly oiled Main street welcomed the day's first arriving automobile parties over the rim of the surrounding hills, the swelling town realized that this was the last day for the payment of Jack Dempsey's final $100,000. In the last 48 hours the town has been receiving a steady trickle of new inhabitants from the outside and the busy hours of the day find the sidewalks as crowded as a street in the Bronx at Baby Buggy hour. Some of the callers lumbered up the rise of the hills and down into the plain in automobiles resembling motorized hummocks, having run into the after-effects of storms in certain spots along the road. Many others piled down the steps of the late night and early morning trains and still others shook themselves loose from the running gear of box cars and pullmans.

Although Major Gene Lane, the lumberman leader of the new committee in charge of the third installment, had optimistically insisted that the fight would be carried out, doubt was still rife among the businessmen and the prospectors who had put their money into the thousand and one concessions about the town. Feeling was beginning to manifest itself against Dempsey and he will enter the ring here, if he fights, at all, as the most unpopular man alive except Jack Kearns, whose standing up and down Main street could not be described within the limits of libel.

EVERETT TRUE

By Condo

16-Yr.-Old Wonder on Third

By FRANK A. CLARVOE (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

San Francisco, July 2.—The San Francisco Seals, bidders for pennant honors in the Pacific Coast League, believe they have helped their chances for next year by signing Eddie Montague, young high school baseball star, said to be the youngest player on contract in organized baseball.

Montague is only 16 years old. He got his training on the sand lots of Golden Gate Park and with the Polytechnic high school team. Experts who have watched him work claim he is the sweetest third baseman they have ever seen. For his years, and promises to be a greater player than Willie Kamm, his discoverer.

The young Seal has been under cover for some time and his signing was kept a dark secret until the school season had been played out. Eddie is a right-handed batter and, according to George Alfred Putnam, Seal secretary, "has everything—the old arm, the old punch with the bat, the speed and grace of Kamm and the eye of O'Connell. Tell you, he's a marvel."

Kamm claims to have discovered Montague, and told Charley Graham, who has the say-so in such things for the Seals, that Montague will make a better ball player than Kamm ever hopes to make. Which was modest of Willie, so to speak. Kamm was responsible for Montague signing with the Seals. As a part of the present big league's recommendation, he declared that Montague could make good in the Coast league right now. Several big clubs are understood to have been after Montague, but the kid followed Kamm's advice and signed with the Seals. "For," said Kamm, "they made me what I am today."

In exchange for his being a good boy and going in with the old gang, Kamm sent Eddie one of his gloves which the youth intends to put to official use when he reports to the Seals' training camp at Boyes Spring next season.

According to local health records, Montague was born in San Francisco July 24, 1906. He joined the Sunset Federals, a city league team, when only 12 years old. There he got acquainted with Kamm and imitated that rising star so well that Kamm taught him all he knew, until today Montague needs but big-time experience to be one of the game's best cyclone sackers, according to Kamm.

The Sunset Federals is the team which has started off such major league stars as Pinelli, Caveney, Bohne, Fonseca, George Kelly and Billy Cunningham. Anson Orr, manager of the Federals, is credited with dividing honors with Kamm in bringing out the youth's fielding and hitting qualities.

Last season Montague played with Cliff Ireland's Independents, of which Bert Ellison, Joe Kelly and Harry Courtney were members. The Independents class with the Federals in being baseball kindergartens of fame in these parts.

The musical program was a return engagement, for the concert that the choir of the Greensburg church gave in this city several weeks ago. A splendid audience was present to hear the concert, which consisted of selections by the choir and orchestra, solos, both vocal and instrumental, and a monologue by Stewart Allen Bebout, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Verl Bebout.

Immediately following the concert a reception was given for the local people in the Y. M. C. A. building, where the Greensburg people proved themselves to be splendid hosts and hostesses. WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT STAND

Says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well and Strong

Glens Falls, N. Y.—“For over two months I was so sick I was not able to stand on my feet, and my husband did my housework. The doctor said an operation might be necessary. I read testimonial letters about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began to take it. Before I had finished taking the first bottle I saw what good it was doing me. I am now well and strong, doing all my work for a family of four, all my washing and my sewing, which I think is remarkable, as I had not dared to run my sewing machine, but had done all my sewing by hand. I truly feel that were it not for your medicine I would not be here today as my case seemed very serious.”—Mrs. GEORGE W. BURCHELL, Glens Falls, N. Y.

MILLER TRIAL IS HELD UP TILL FALL

Continued Until Fall Term When Special Judge Takes Motion to Quash Under Advisement

ADJOURNED SESSION JULY 23

Unfinished Business Will be Taken Care of Then—Many Grand Jury
Indictments Served

Saturday proved to be a busy day in the circuit court, which ended the May term, and many grand jury indictments were served during the closing hours. The case set for today of the state against Capp Miller, charged with unlawful possession of a still, was continued until the fall term.

Judge Sparks will hold an adjourned session on Monday, July 23, when some of the unfinished business or motions may be taken care of.

In the Miller case, which was to be heard by a special judge, John Craig of Greensburg, the defendant filed a motion to quash and the matter was taken under advisement, and this caused a delay in the case set for today.

In the case of the Commercial Investment Company against Carl O'neal, a suit on a trade acceptance, and on which the plaintiff was recently awarded judgment, the defendant was refused a motion for a new trial, and an appeal to the Appellate court was taken and bond furnished.

In the list of criminal business, growing out of grand jury indictments, appeared the following defendants.

Rose C. Small of Carthage, charged with unlawful possession and transporting liquor, gave $1,000 bond, and an affidavit of a similar nature was dismissed.

Frank Wallace, Rushville photographer, was arraigned on two charges, one for perjury and the other for the unlawful possession of liquor. Bond on the first case was $2,000 and on the latter case $1,000. The perjury case alleges that he made a false statement on the witness stand at his former liquor trial, in asserting that the bottom contained some other substance, other than "white mule".

Jack Smith was arraigned on two charges of assault and battery. The prosecuting witness was James Root. In one case he pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $1 and costs, and the other case was dismissed.

James Palmer was arraigned on two charges, one for burglary and the other for grand larceny, with bond in each case being given for $500. The specific charge is that he entered and robbed the Big Four railroad.

GENERAL EXODUS FROM CITY ON THE FOURTH

Business Will Be Suspended And Rushville People Will Spend The Day Elsewhere

MANY ARE GOING TO KOKOMO

A general exodus from Rushville is probable on the Fourth of July as business will be suspended and there will be no attraction here to keep Rushville people home. Rush county farmers will have plenty to occupy them in the wheat fields.

The postoffice will be closed all day and no city or rural deliveries will be made, with the exception of special delivery parcels and packages containing perishable matter.

Banks, barber shops, practically all retail establishments and all other places of business will be closed all day.

A number of Rush county men and women will go to Kokomo to attend the state meeting of the Ku Klux Klan. The Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company will run two special cars from Rushville and two each from Connersville, Greensburg and Shelbyville for the meeting. The cars will be run straight through to Kokomo. The I. & C. will maintain its regular service on the holiday.

BIDS ARE OPENED

Commissioners Have Business Session At Regular Monthly Meeting

The county board of commissioners allowed the usual monthly claims at the July meeting this morning, and went to Noble township before noon to view the W. A. Norris gravel road which has lately been completed. The road will be open for travel in a short time.

The commissioners were due for a busy session this afternoon, beginning at two o'clock. They expected to open bids on the Lavern Dam macadam road in Richland township, for coal at the court house and county jail and for supplies at the county poor infirmary.

KRUPP WORKS IN HANDS OF FRENCH

Invading Troops Advance In The Ruhr As Reprisals For Bomb
Outrage At Hochfeld Bridge

OCCUPIED AREAS CUT OFF

Germans Aboard Trains Are Forced To March Over Every Bridge
Ahead Of The Trains

(By United Press)

Berlin, July 2—Advance of French troops in the Ruhr and Rhineland began at dawn. The move is believed here to be in reprisal for the bomb outrage at Hochfeld bridge Saturday in which many Belgian soldiers lost their lives.

Westhofen was occupied by the French at 4 a. m. Reports from Schwerte were that a detachment of sixty French cyclists was on its way to that city, while cavalry and infantry advanced in the direction of Hagen.

It is reported that the entire Krupp works in the Ruhr have been seized and all work stopped. The occupied areas have been cut off from the rest of Germany as a result of sanctions following the Hochfeld outrage. No traffic, save in foodstuffs is allowed the Germans.

A typical example of the form reprisals are taken is to be found in the situation at Duisberg. Twenty citizens were arrested and held as hostages; coffee houses and theatres were closed; vehicular traffic is prohibited; pedestrians must keep off the streets from 10 p. m. until 5 a. m.

Every time a train passing through the occupied area comes to a bridge ahead the German passengers are forced to alight. Then, with their hands held over their heads, they are driven on foot over the bridge ahead of the train and taken aboard on the other side.

The border control has been tightened. Orders have gone out from the forces of occupation that pedestrians attempting to cross the borders by country roads will be shot unceremoniously.

The French occupied several important positions of the Krupp works at Essen, including smelters and boilers. They seized electric locomotives also.

It is not known whether they desire to confiscate locomotive, etc., or intend to occupy the works permanently.

Winona Lake, Ind., July 2.—Christianity is today the only hope of saving the world from chaos, Bishop William F. Anderson, of the Methodist Episcopal church, declared in the opening address of the conference on world citizenship which is being held here with representatives from nearly 40 nations present.

"Europe is engaged in the impossible task of trying to build the life of the continent upon hate," he said. "Europe is seething in hate and bitterness. Europe may go the way of Babylon or an Assyria."

"The world's greatest task is to rationalize and Christianize its activities and institutions. Unless international relationships are put on a basis of Christianity, the world will sink into chaos."

The Rev. Jesse H. Martin, general superintendent of the national reform association, declared that the world had tried everything but Christianity as a cure for its ills, and that it was now time to give the Christian religion a fair trial.

Dr. Henry Chung, Korean commissioner to the United States, said that continued world peace is impossible without recognizing the nationality of all peoples on a basis of Christian fellowship.

Pupils Of First Presbyterian Church
Demonstrate Vacation Work

The Daily Vacation Bible School of the First Presbyterian church, which ended Friday, presented the program Sunday night at the church which also was the first of the union services for the summer months by the Protestant churches of the city.

The program consisted of a summary of the work accomplished by the Bible school and one of the features was the dramatization "Story of Moses" by the primary class. Many of the students gave Bible readings that had been committed to memory and other numbers were songs and recitations by the various classes. On account of the program being rendered, there was no sermon.

GINGES FARMER GIVES $2,000 BOND TODAY

Edward Herbert, On Whose Farm
Corn Whiskey Was Found, Will Be Tried In September

NEPHEW MAKES CONFESSION

Edward Herbert former of Ginges, upon whose place a barrel of alleged corn whiskey was found Friday morning, appeared this morning in the circuit court and gave bond for $2,000, and his case will be set for trial in the September term of court.

It will be recalled that the search was made following the confession of Ralford Garris, a 15-year-old boy, who was intoxicated Thursday night in Connersville and arrested. Frank Perkins of Connersville also was arrested and will be tried Thursday in that court.

The lad, who is a nephew of the defendant, is said to have made a complete confession. Sheriff Hunt who was among those who made the raid on the farm, stated that the barrel of whiskey was found in the middle of a wheat field, and was in the fermenting stage. Large green flies were busily swarming over the top of the foam, he said. The lad stated that the water was dipped from the river, usually in the nighttime, and that "everything in the water" went into the barrel.

The sheriff stated that the heavy drinkers of "moonshine" would no doubt be cured if they could see the places where the "stuff" is manufactured.

MELTING POT LID IS THROWN OPEN

Greatest Rush Of Immigration Since
New Restrictions Went Into Effect
Two Years Ago

2,074 ARE ADMITTED SUNDAY

Influx Of Foreigners Expected To Close By Tuesday Noon—Lured
By High Wages Here

Ellis Island, N. Y. July 2—The lid of the melting pot was opened today to the greatest rush of immigration since the new restrictions went into effect two years ago.

Dawn found a staff of officials which had labored throughout Sunday once more at work, passing the first of the 2,500 immigrants who are expected to gain admission to the United States today. Two thousand and seventy-four, first of the human cargoes dumped here by a dozen trans-Atlantic liners the moment the new immigration year began, were admitted Sunday.

The rush of foreigners seeking homes here lured for the most part, according to their stories, by high wages—such as the $12 a day paid to bricklayers—is expected to be over by Tuesday afternoon when the largest number of immigrants that ever has sought admission at one time, will have been passed.

Commissioner of Immigration Henry H. Curran said that in his opinion the present rush of immigrants was of an unusually good class and that at least eighty percent would be admitted.

In spite of the record number to be handled, Curran said there was no serious congestion as the newcomers were swept through the necessary channels of inspection and examination.

Biased up by the recent excitement of the liner's race to port, the new arrivals seemed happy. Many of them possessed musical instruments and crowded groups of immigrants pressing forward to inspection enlivened the waiting with old world songs.

Cesareo Litini, 15-year old Italian boy, first of the July quota to be admitted, said he had been attracted to the United States because his brother, now living here was making $12 a day as a bricklayer.

One Italian, accompanied by his family, famed at the Ellis Island routine because he said he had already purchased pullman reservations for Chicago and the delay was causing him to miss the train.

Some of the smaller countries exhausted their quota almost immediately. The division known as "other Asia" comprising Turkey in Asia and Persia, last night exceeded its quota of 16 by two.

500 Come Through Detroit

Detroit, Mich., July 2—Five hundred foreigners stormed the immigration office here yesterday and were admitted to the United States under quotas allowed for the fiscal year.

As many more would be immigrants were expected to apply today and on the rest of the days of the week, according to Dr. P. L. Prentiss, director of immigration here.

Several thousand applications are expected to be received during the week, Dr. Prentiss said as thousands of foreigners were reported to have been waiting on the Canadian side.

CAN PLACE MEN FOR THE HARVEST

County Agent Says Employment be Found For Them Somewhere
Work on Rush County Farms

SHORTAGE NOT SERIOUS HERE

J. H. Starkey, R. R. 7, First Farm in Rush County to Finish Wheat Cutting—Begins in Earnest

The county agent can place a number of men on farms for harvest work if those wanting such employment will get in touch with him at once. The county agent will only arrange employment but will see that the men are transported to the farms.

A story appearing in the Kansas City Star last week no doubt gave wrong impression regarding the worst labor situation in this country by intimating that there was no additional help needed. While the situation the county over is not as serious as in other counties in the state there are individual farms which help is needed.

In some counties the situation is so serious and labor is so scarce that laborers are taking advantage of the situation by charging exorbitant prices for their services. Such a condition is not looked for in this county, for most farmers by a change of help between themselves will be able to cope with the situation.

At the present price of wheat the financial disadvantage of agriculture at the present time, Rush county farmers can not afford to will not pay unreasonable prices for labor. It is pointed out by some that the farmer can better afford to turn his hogs into his wheat and "hog it down" rather than pay the exorbitant prices asked in some parts of the country. This does not mean, however, that the farmer is expecting to get his labor for nothing, will pay the real value of the service as reflected by the market price of his product, it is stated.

J. H. Starkey, Rural Route No. 7, Rushville is believed to be the first farm in Rush county to finish wheat cutting. He finished his crop twenty-eight acres Saturday. The wheat is the Dunlap variety and was sowed September 26 last year.

Wheat cutting was on in full blast today. There was believed to be very few fields in the county that had not been invaded by the binder. Some of the wheat was very ripe before cutting began. Several farmers started Saturday afternoon, cutting around the field a few times, and were prepared to go to the annual task.

HARDING TO DISCUSS PROBLEMS OF THE WEST

Irrigation and Highway Transportation to Engage President's Attention in Spokane Speech

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

Aboard President Harding's special train, enroute to Spokane, Washington, July 2—Problems of developing western irrigation and highway transportation will engage President Harding's attention in his address to be delivered in Spokane tonight.

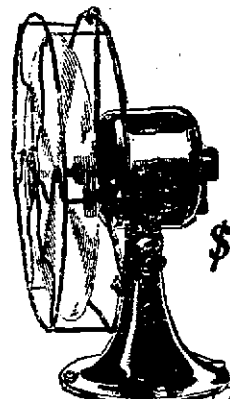

Mr. Harding has strongly voiced convictions concerning Western development as a national problem which he intends to express. He in mind three cardinal points around which his entire western policy revolves:

1—The West must be given fullest opportunity for development but it should be self-sustaining largely as possible and not dependent through paternalism.

2—Development must never be the expense of the great national leaders of the country such as the Yellowstone National Park.

3—Irrigation must be "followed through" by the government, the individuals involved, and one hundred percent citizens, "good" on the reclaimed land.

ALL WRONG

The Mistake Is Made by Many Rushville Citizens

Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

If it's weak kidneys you must set the kidneys working right.

A Rushville resident tells you how. Mrs. Will Stout, corner N. Oliver and Tenth streets, says: "I can certainly say a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills for they have done wonders for me when I have used them. I was suffering with my back which was lame and sore. When I did any lifting or stooping, sharp pains caught me in the small of my back. My kidneys felt dull and were too free in action. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box. They rid me of the trouble in a short time."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Stout had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advertisement.

road station in this city a few weeks ago.

Morton Barber of Carthage was arraigned on a charge of malicious trespass, and gave bond in the sum of $500.

Carl Murphy, living near the Decatur county line, was arraigned on a charge of cruelty to animals, and entered a plea of guilty, and his fine of $5 and costs was stayed. He was charged with striking a horse over the leg with a hammer, and the blow caused the horse's leg to be broken.

Two divorce suits also have been dismissed, with the cases of William Shaue against Bertha Shaue and James W. Jones against Dorothy Jones, being stricken from the docket.

In the case of Elsie Lewis against Horace Lewis, which was heard in court last week, the court granted the plaintiff a divorce, and ordered the defendant to pay her $25 for attorney fees and $5 a week support for their two children.

Two Days At The Mystic

Charles Algeron Ewinburne's immortal poem, "Faustine," which has never failed to fascinate and hold enthralled the readers of each new coming generation, forms the basis on one of the most lavish photo-plays presented in many seasons, "The Black Panther's Cub," produced by W. K. Ziegfeld and starring Florence Reed, which is shown at the Mystic today and Tuesday. As "The Black Panther's Cub," or the daughter of "Faustine," Miss Reed returns to the screen, after a prolonged absence, in one of the most entertaining and spectacular roles she has ever essayed.

Scarcely less important is the supporting cast with which Mr. Ziegfeld has surrounded the leading figure in the play. Such as Norman Trevor, Earl Foxe, Tyrone Power and Henry Stephenson are sufficiently important in the amusement world to individually insure the success of any production, whether on the stage or screen, and yet this array of theatrical talent has been combined by the producer in this one production.

Are Girls Too Swift

Is the modern, up-to-the minute, emancipated, unfettered and untrammelled girl overdoing it? Can she carry her own lutekey, smoke cigarette, keep late hours, ignore the conventions, smash the old ideals without at the same time smashing herself?

Or, in another way of putting it: Is the so-called "bold girl" necessarily a "bad girl?"

A great many women leaders are beginning to suffer uneasy qualms and ask themselves this question. What is the answer?

In "Prologal Daughters," a Sam Wood Paramount production with Gloria Swanson as the star, which comes to the Princess theatre Wednesday and Thursday, the answer is a smashing surprise that will make the audience gasp.

A frenzy of extravagance in which the thoroughly liberated woman of today is shown plunging full tilt into the maelstrom of reckless behavior, is followed by a climax that is unique in motion picture production.

COMPANY C DRILL

All members of Company C, Rushville's National guard unit, are urged to attend the weekly drill Tuesday night, as time is getting short for drills before they leave for the summer camp. The local company will entrain here Sunday, July 15 for Camp Knox where they will take two weeks training. Last Tuesday the local company was inspected by a state officer, and the next two drill nights will be important ones for the soldiers.

THE BEAUTY OF HOLI-NESS:—Give unto the Lord, the glory due unto His name; bring an offering, and come before Him; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.—1 Chronicles 16: 29.

A Double Benefit

The close of the government fiscal year at Washington, with a surplus of $209,000,000, notwithstanding the fact that we entered the year July 1, 1922, with a deficit of over $800,-

000,000 staring us in the face, has demonstrated the value of a tariff law that taxes imports and that also revives business by inspiring confidence.

For one thing, the tax upon imports of foreign products has contributed to the revenues more than $100,000,000 in excess of what was estimated in July of last year as coming from that source. But that is not its major achievement. Business men knew when the present administration took control of national policies that they could look forward to prosperous times—that American industry and agriculture would be protected from too severe foreign competition. Hence, business began to revive late in 1921 and was going at a pretty good tilt in 1922, confident that by the time it had struck running heat protection would again be a fact.

Capacity production became the rule within three months after the passage of the Fordney-McCumber law. You can't squeeze blood from a turnip, and you can't secure taxes in satisfactory amount from business when it has lain prostrate for a year.
But the state of business for 1922 resulted in a good tax yield in the early months of 1923. Because of improved business conditions, the current year will be a bumper federal income year, so satisfactory that it may be found advisable and practicable to clip the rates a bit in the assessments on 1924 operations.
And here again the benefits of the tariff will be in evidence.

Baiting The Supreme Court

There is much being said these days in criticism of the power exercised by the United States Supreme court.

Here is what Chief Justice Marshall gave as his view of it, and it is the commonly accredited view:

"It is a proposition too plain to be contested that the Constitution controls any legislative act repugnant to it; or that the legislature may alter the Constitution by an ordinary act. Between these alternatives there is no middle ground. The Constitution is either a superior, paramount law, unchangeable by ordinary means, or it is on a level with ordinary legislative acts, and, like other acts, is alterable when the legislature shall please to alter it. If the former part of the alternative be true, then a legislative act contrary to the Constitution is not law; if the latter part be true, then written constitutions are absurd attempts, on the part of the people, to limit a power in its own nature illimitable."

This doubtless will be the American constitutional view, in contrast with the British supreme parliamentary idea, so long as the governmental system left us by the builders of the republic is able to withstand the attacks of those who would have the political wisdom and intelligence of the average man reflected in our organic law rather than to set up a standard of wisdom and intelligence to operate as a check on popular clamor.

BEHNKE GIVEN POOR SUPPORT

Rushville Pitcher Pounded For Nine Hits But Greensburg Earns Only One Run

The Greensburg Eagles again showed their hand with the Rushville baseball club, when they blanked the locals here Sunday afternoon, 5 to 0, with the pitching of Hall the outstanding feature, who allowed only one hit, and fanned out 13 batters.

Behnke for the locals was given poor support in tight places, although pounded for nine singles, but the visiting team earned only one run. The local team played poor ball in spots, but their inability to hit the ball proved to be the stumbling block.

The game with the Greensburg club for Wednesday was cancelled yesterday, and the locals will not play on the holiday.

The game by play yesterday was as follows:

First Inning

Greensburg: Purnell grounded to Cookman at short for an error; Fritz sacrificed. W. Behnke to Schott; Van Metre singled to right, scoring Purnell, and the runner reached second on the throw-in. Lambert singled to right on slow fly, scoring Van Metre. Johnson flied to Purnell in deep center. Gunter singled through short. Wagner singled to right, but Lambert was caught at the plate, Sharp to Byrne. Two runs, four hits, one error.

Rushville: Conway fanned. R

Behnke also fanned swinging. Schott out, third to first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning

Greensburg: Thompson out, second to first; Hall and Purnell fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning

Greensburg: Fritz beat out an infield hit. VanMetre sacrificed, pitcher to first. Lambert out second to first. Johnson up, Fritz scored on passed ball, and batter was out. Cookman to first. One run, one hit, one error.

Rushville: Cookman and Sharp fanned. W. Behnke safe when short stop fumbled his grounder. Conway fanned. No runs no hits, one error.

Fourth Inning

Greensburg: Gunter singled over short. Wagner forced Gunter at second. W. Behnke to Conway. Thompson up, Wagner stole second, batter out, short to first. Hall fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Rushville: R. Behnke singled back of third for the only bingle that Rushville got. Schott flied to second. Byrne out, third to first. Tettters out, short to first. No runs, one hit no errors.

Fifth Inning

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS

Seventh Inning

Greensburg: Hall flied to Pearsey in center. Purnell safe on pop-up fly back to short. Fritz fanned. Van Metre up, Purnell stole second, batter lined to short, who made bad throw to first scoring Purnell. Lambert up, Van Metre caught off second, Cookman to Conway. One run, one hit, one error.

Eighth Inning

Greensburg: Lambert singled along right foul line. Johnson hit to Cookman at short, who fumbled. Gunter forced Johnson as second, Cookman to Conway. Wagner at on infield to cConway. Thompson lined to pitcher, who stopped the ball on his shine, but made an error by throwing the ball away, when a third out could have been made easily to first base. Lambert scored on the play. Hall was walked, filling bases. Purnell lined to third. One run, one hit, two errors.

Ninth Inning

Greensburg: Fritz flied to R. Behnke over third. Van Metre grounded to third, who threw wild to first. Lambert fanned. Johnson fouled to third. No runs, no hits, one error.

DEATH WATCH ON THE FIGHT BEGINS

Newspaper Men And Others Gather Outside Bank That Is To Cough Up Last $100,000

PEOPLE THINK IT'S A GO

By HENRY L. FARRELL (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Great Falls, Mont., July 2.—Before the grey stone building which houses the Stanton Savings and Trust bank, the death watch on the Dempsey-Gibbons fight started early this morning.

Some time before midnight the vault of the bank is expected to cough up the $100,000 final payment of the Dempsey $300,000 purse and assure the heavyweight championship battle for Wednesday in Shelby.

Outside the two door of the bank were gathered newspapermen, oil prospectors, a cow puncher and little groups of Elks, attending their state convention here.

Jack Kearns, manager of the champion, appeared and talked with the scribes. He said he hadn't been told when or where the money was to be paid. The contract requires only that it be handed over before midnight.

"I have said many times already that if the money is not turned over Dempsey will not fight," Kearns said. "I will not be bluffing by any kind of threats."

George Stanton, president of the bank, who has been in charge of the latest financial tussle, said the money would be paid but would say no more.

So far as public opinion is concerned the money is as good as paid. The townspeople are talking about the best way to get to Shelby on the Fourth. There seems little doubt that the battle will be staged despite the failure of the promoters to live up to their promises on the previous installment.

Dempsey finished his training Sunday. It was one of his best workouts. He didn't do much but the form he showed and the ease with which he went through his stunts with two sparring partners was enough to convince the critics that he is in shape.

Crowds Begin to Arrive

Shelby, Mont., July 2.—The population and nervousness increased in Shelby simultaneously today.

As daylight and a newly oiled Main street welcomed the day's first arriving automobile parties over the rim of the surrounding hills, the swelling town realized that this was the last day for the payment of Jack Dempsey's final $100,000. In the last 48 hours the town has been receiving a steady trickle of new inhabitants from the outside and the busy hours of the day find the sidewalks as crowded as a street in the Bronx at Baby Baggy hour. Some of the capers lumbered up the rise of the hills and down into the plain in automobiles resembling motorized hummocks, having run into the after-effects of storms in certain spots along the road. Many others piled down the steps of the late night and early morning trains and still others shook themselves loose from the running gear of box cars and pullmans.

Although Major Gene Lane, the lumberman leader of the new committee in charge of the third installment, had optimistically insisted that the fight would be carried out, doubt was still rife among the businessmen and the prospectors who had put their money into the thousand and one concessions about the town. Feeling was beginning to manifest itself against Dempsey and he will enter the ring here, if he fights at all, as the most unpopular man alive except Jack Kearns, whose standing up and down Main street could not be described within the limits of libel.

16-Yr.-Old Wonder on Third

By FRANK A. CLARVOE (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

San Francisco, July 2.—The San Francisco Seals, bidders for pennant honors in the Pacific Coast League, believe they have helped their chances for next year by signing Eddie Montague, young high school baseball star, said to be the youngest player on contract in organized baseball.

Montague is only 16 years old. He got his training on the sand lots of Golden Gate Park and with the Polytechnic high school team. Experts who have watched him work claim he is the sweetest third baseman they have ever seen for his years, and promises to be a greater player than Willie Kamm, his discoverer.

The young Seal has been under cover for some time and his signing was kept a dark secret until the school season had been played out. Eddie is a right-handed hitter and, according to George Alfred Putnam, Seal secretary, "has everything—the old arm, the old punch with the bat, the speed and grace of Kamm and the eye of O'Connell. Tell you, he's a marvel."

Kamm claims to have discovered Montague, and told Charley Graham, who has the say-so in such things for the Seals, that Montague will make a better ball player than Kamm ever hopes to make. Which was modest of Willie, so to speak. Kamm was responsible for Montague signing with the Seals. As a part of the present big league's recommendation, he declared that Montague could make good in the Coast-league right now. Several big clubs are understood to have been after Montague, but the kid followed Kamm's advice and signed with the Seals, "for," said Kamm, "they made me what I am today."

In exchange for his being a good boy and going in with the old gang, Kamm sent Eddie one of his gloves which the youth intends to put to official use when he reports to the Seals' training camp at Boyes Spring next season.

According to local health records, Montague was born in San Francisco July 24, 1906. He joined the Sunset Federals, a city league team, when only 12 years old. There he got acquainted with Kamm and imitated that rising star so well that Kamm taught him all he knew, until today Montague needs but big-time experience to be one of the game's best cyclone sackers, according to Kamm.

The Sunset Federals is the team which has started off such major league stars as Pinelli, Caveney, Bohne, Fonseca, George Kelly and Billy Cunningham. Anson Orr, manager of the Federals, is credited with dividing honors with Kamm in bringing out the youth's fielding and hitting qualities.

Last season Montague played with Cliff Ireland's Independents, of which Bert Ellison, Joe Kelly and Harry Courtney were members. The Independents class with the Federals in being baseball kindergartens of fame in these parts.

Approximately thirty-five members of the choir and fifteen members of the orchestra of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, besides a number of the congregation, motored to Greensburg Sunday evening, where the choir and orchestra gave a musical concert at the Methodist church in that city. The musical program was a return engagement, for the concert that the choir of the Greensburg church gave in this city several weeks ago. A splendid audience was present to hear the concert, which consisted of selections by the choir and orchestra, solos, both vocal and instrumental, and a monologue by Stewart Allen Bebout, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Veri Bebout.

Immediately following the concert a reception was given for the local people in the Y. M. C. A. building, where the Greensburg people proved themselves to be splendid hosts and hostesses. The receiving room was arranged very cozy for the guests and following the receiving of the guests, an invitation was extended to them to enter the dining room where delicious refreshments of brick ice cream, cake and mint were served, the color scheme of pink and white predominating. The guests were seated at small tables, which were prettily decorated with French baskets of summer flowers. Mr. Serf, of Greensburg, acted as toastmaster and gave short welcome address to the visitors. A number of toasts were made, both by the Greensburg people and local people. Following the serving of the refreshments an informal social hour was enjoyed, during which the Greensburg people and the local people became closer acquainted.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT STAND

Says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well and Strong

Glens Falls, N. Y.—"For over two months I was so sick I was not able to stand on my feet, and my husband did my housework. The doctor said an operation might be necessary. I read testimonials about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began to take it. Before I had finished taking the first bottle I saw what good it was doing me. I am now well and strong, doing all my work for a family of four, all my washing and my sewing, which I think is remarkable, as I had not dared to run my sewing machine, but had done all my sewing by hand. I truly feel that were it not for your medicine I would not be here today as my case seemed very serious."—Mrs. GEORGE W. BUECHELL, Glens Falls, N. Y.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Allments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free, upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information that every woman should have.
